

THE BRIDGE OF NIGHTMARE

CHAPTER 1

In 1952, Chuck Walker, the best detective of San Francisco, investigated on a case of crimes. Some women had disappeared and were found dead, hanged under the Golden Gate Bridge. The criminal was nicknamed : « The Nightmare ».

CHAPTER 2

It was a Friday in the morning, a woman came at Chuck Walker's office. She shouted « body under the bridge ! » and Walker said « Calm down, sit down and tell me what happened ». « Ok, I was driving my car, before entering the Golden Gate Bridge, I saw many bodies hanging in trashbags under the bridge ». The detective Chuck Walker had to find the suspect. It was the third time in the week that the criminal killed somebody.

CHAPTER 3

At 9 pm, Chuck Walker decided to park in front of the « famous » bridge to wait for the criminal to take his news victims.

At 11:45 pm, he heard noises. He loaded discretely his « Colt 1911 » and left his car. He saw a man drag two trash bags. He followed the man and pointed his gun on his head and... « hum »... Fire !

He open the trashbags and saw trash. It was only the trashman. Chuck Walker was emprisoned and the real criminal was stopped by an other detective.
